USSR-POLAND: Soviet Pressure

Moscow has sent the Polish party's Central Committee a letter demanding tougher measures against "counter-revolutionaries" and suggesting that the Polish party might be losing control, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] If true, the letter would mark a major escalation in the increasingly open polemics between the two parties. Before this report surfaced yesterday, Warsaw had announced that its Central Committee would hold a plenary meeting tomorrow to discuss the party congress scheduled for next month. Whether or not the alleged Soviet letter had anything to do with the timing of the Central Committee meeting, it will undoubtedly be the major topic of discussion. [REDACTED]
